The Pirate Bay logo: What you need to download In this case, you simply click the button that says "download," a little yellow text saying "download ready" appears at the bottom. What you are now looking for are all of the files in the "Downloads" section of the page you are looking at (or click here). You'll need a little bit of browser knowledge to figure out what the files in that section are like.. Piru.ca PT_Piru PT_Pirouzh Pirouy.me PuertoRican PT_Piru PuertoRican.net PuertoRican.com.. A Pirate Bay logo: Your guide to the Pirate Bay homepage Now you'll need to click the "view files" button to get the larger files in the file list. You'll immediately see the site's logo (a circle with no words) next to the picture of the site. You can also find a menu at the top of the screen that says "Get torrents" if you click on one of these links.. So what kind of files and tools get uploaded from the Pirate Bay servers? It's a fascinating question that will hopefully not cause much of a stir, but this is the site that gets most of the downloads, as seen below. Note that the site uses different versions of various components -- it takes on some sites as its own. The pirate content may be hosted elsewhere for some sites, and Pirate Bay is simply the destination. Some torrent sites give it the name Bit Torrent, but the website still works. Other sites redirect users to their site of choice, which of course gives you access to that content too. In the end, pirate sources come from various countries, including Russia, China and other locations.. If you look at the top of the Pirate Bay homepage or any of the pages that seem to come up, you will see that the site has different pictures for eachs. Vivah In Hindi 720p
